

Orange County Justice Facility Expansion

The Orange County Justice Facility will see a significant expansion and modernization over the next two years, while honoring the important historical heritage of Hillsborough. Limited renovations will occur inside the existing Courthouse, but a large addition will allow much needed expansion of the County Judicial functions. Both the Clerk of Courts office and the Orange County Sheriff's Department will relocate to the new facility. (Click on Artist's Renderings to view larger images)

Project Name	Orange County Justice Facility Expansion
Cost	$12,787,003
Size	40,227 square feet
Groundbreaking	June, 2007
Anticipated Opening	Expansion phase opened January, 2009; Renovation phase opened May, 2010
Architect	Corley, Redfoot, Zack, Chapel Hill, NC
General Contractor	Bordeaux Construction, Durham, NC

Next Month at a Glance:

All Justice Facilities are now in full operation. Click here for more information regarding the highly energy efficient geothermal ground source heat pump system.

Pictures:

