

Summer Reading Writing Contest

The Strangest Summer Ever!

Strange: unusual, extraordinary, odd

Imagine the strangest summer you could ever have and then write a story about it.

What would happen? What makes it strange?

Pick up your entry form at the Youth Services Desk.

All entries must be submitted by Monday, July 25, 2016.

Winners and their entries will be announced on Friday, July 29, 2016.

Writing Contest Rules:

- Contestants should be rising K-6th graders. The contest will have two groups: Rising K-3rd graders and Rising 4-6th graders.
- Contestants must write an original story.
- All entries must be accompanied by a completed entry form.
- Winners will be selected based on their adherence to the theme "The Strangest Summer Ever" as well as the quality of their writing.

All participants will receive a certificate of participation and are invited to a reception to be held Tuesday, August 2, 2016, at 6:30 pm, where the winners will read their stories.

All submissions become the property of the Orange County Public Library and may be used by the Library for promotions and advertising for any event or activity sponsored by the Library. Participants agree to allow the Orange County Public Library to use their names and photographs for publicity purposes.
