RED NOSE COMEDY COMES TO THE SEYMOUR CENTER

ORANGE COUNTY, NC (May 12, 2016) - The Orange County Department on Aging invites you to an afternoon of fun and laughter as they team up with Walgreens for a Red Nose Comedy event.

The event will take place on Thursday, May 26, from 3:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. at the Seymour Center, located at 2551 Homestead Road in Chapel Hill.

Red Nose Day is a special day to come together to have fun and make a difference for kids. The Seymour Center event will feature comedy and entertainment by the Tree Huggers Improv, Rozzie Roz, Orange County Jammers and more.

The goal of this intergenerational partnership is to raise awareness and funds to help lift children out of poverty by wearing a Red Nose or other Red Nose items on May 26. Get your Red Nose at your local Walgreens store and help fight childhood poverty.

Red Nose Comedy at Seymour event co-sponsors, Walgreens on Environ Way in Chapel Hill and Walgreens on US Hwy. 70 in Hillsborough, will be on-hand to help give everyone a chance to win door prizes, including door prizes donated by NBC Universal affiliate NBC4 in Washington, DC.

The event is free. Registration is not required; however, guests are encouraged to register by Thursday, May 19.

Light refreshments will be served.

For more information or to register, please call the Seymour Center at 919.968.2070. To learn more about Red Nose Day and how you can help, visit www.rednoseday.org.
