Employer: self-employed and occasional pt lecturer at NCSU

Job Title: Writer, lecturer, anthropologist

Relevant background, education and experience: I am an anthropologist and influential author specializing in human-animal relationships. I have particular expertise pertaining to backyard chickens and animals in urban agricultures. I have published and taught courses in the area of humans relationships with domestic, wild, and feral animals.

Reasons for wanting to serve on this board: I have been fascinated by human-animal relationships for most of my life. I recently moved to Chapel Hill/Carrboro for family reasons. Previously I was a professor of anthropology at a small college in Michigan. I live in a neighborhood with particularly fast-changing and interesting issues pertaining to people, pets, and wildlife (e.g., coyotes). I think I could make a positive contribution--I am a patient listener, clear communicator and am willing to consider many points of view.

Personal or business interest(s) that could create a conflict of interest:

Community Activities/Organizational Memberships: Volunteer at Morris Grove Elementary. Active member of the Society for CULTural Anthropology and the American Anthropological Assn. Serving on Prize Committee of the Gregory Bateson Award.
