

10th Anniversary of The Sustainable Energy Conference

The premier forum on energy issues in North Carolina

EMBRACING AN INTELLIGENT ENERGY FUTURE:

How Will North Carolina Integrate Economics, Behavior, Supply and Delivery Strategies to Shape our Energy Landscape?

Smart Grid Forum

This bonus half-day forum on April 15 from 1:00-5:00 p.m. will focus on North Carolina—Smart Grid Excellence; Microgrids; Opportunities for the Smart Grid; Data Analytics, Security, and Interoperability; and Smart Grid Economy.

Energy Efficiency

Sessions within this track will provide you with the latest information on implementing practical energy efficiency solutions.

Utility Savings Initiative

In these sessions you will learn about USI update; EE programs; ACEEE “intelligent efficiency”; and transportation.

Renewables

Sessions within this track will focus on utility scale photovoltaic systems; renewable energy credits in NC; offshore wind; renewable energy supply chains in NC; and onshore wind farms.

Policy and Finance

These sessions will examine the federal and state energy and sustainability policy landscape and its impact on jobs, investing, and economic development.

Sustainable Tourism, Agriculture, and BioFuels

Workshops in this track will focus on sustainable agriculture; sustainable tourism; sustainability 101; sustainability

North Carolina Energy Office energync.net
ENERGY

April 15-17, 2013
McKimmon Conference and Training Center
North Carolina State University | Raleigh, NC

Register today!

www.sustainable-energy-conference.org

or call 919.515.2261