

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ORANGE COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY (OCPL) PROMOTES FUNDRAISER

ORANGE COUNTY, NC (August 15, 2013)—The Friends of the Orange County Public Library (FOCPL) is coordinating a fundraiser to benefit the Orange County Public Library.

FOCPL is offering personalized brick pavers from August 15 - November 1, 2013, that will be installed in early 2014 at the entrance of the OCPL Main Library in Hillsborough.

Individuals, businesses, churches, and community organizations are encouraged to show their support of the library by ordering a paver. Pavers can commemorate birthdays, graduations or anniversaries, memorialize a loved one or family pet, feature a favorite quote, etc.

“OCPL is very appreciative of the support provided by the Friends of the Library,” said Library Director Lucinda Munger. “The organization has enhanced our collections and services over the years through their book sales and volunteer efforts.”

FOCPL held two successful pavers sales in 2009 and 2010. These fundraisers allowed the group to purchase items, such as a self-checkout machine, Kindle e-readers, an LCD projector, furniture, and shelving for the Main Library.

“We are so pleased to offer pavers once again,” said FOCPL President Janet Flowers. “Even though the last sale was three years ago, people have continued to inquire about purchasing pavers. We’re glad to bring them back by popular demand!”

Pavers may be ordered online at www.orangecountync.gov/library/pavers.asp Brochures and order forms are also available at the OCPL Main Library located at 137 W. Margaret Lane.

For more information about the Friends of the Orange County Public Library, please visit www.orangecountync.gov/library/friends.asp

###