

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ORANGE COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY EXTENDS PAVER FUNDRAISER

ORANGE COUNTY, NC (November 26, 2013)—The Friends of the Orange County Public Library (FOCPL) is announcing the brick paver fundraiser has been extended to Friday, December 20.

“A personalized paver is a wonderful and unique gift to give this holiday season,” said OCPL Director Lucinda Munger. “It’s a meaningful way to commemorate a special occasion, honor a loved one or pet, feature a favorite quote, show your organization’s support of the library, and more.”

The personalized brick pavers will be installed at the entrance of the OCPL Main Library in Hillsborough in the first quarter of 2014.

“Individuals, businesses, churches or community organizations are encouraged to show their support of the library by purchasing a paver,” said FOCPL President Janet Flowers. “The proceeds will be used enhance the library’s collections and services.”

Pavers may be ordered online at www.orangecountync.gov/library/pavers.asp Brochures and order forms are also available at the OCPL Main Library at 137 W. Margaret Lane.

For more information about the Friends of the Orange County Public Library, please visit www.orangecountync.gov/library/friends.asp

###