ORANGE COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY HOSTING
BILINGUAL LUNCH & LEARN SERIES

ORANGE COUNTY, NC (December 30, 2013)—The Orange County Public Library (OCPL) Main Library is pleased to announce a new Spanish/English Lunch & Learn series beginning on January 17, 2014.

The meetings will take place at 12:00 p.m. every other Friday in the library's meeting room. Participants are encouraged to bring a packed lunch as they practice and learn Spanish or English from native speakers.

There will be six hour-long sessions facilitated by a bilingual volunteer, designed to encourage a relaxed, collaborative learning environment. English-speaking participants will have an opportunity to learn Spanish language basics or practice conversation skills, while helping others learn English.

Similarly, Spanish speakers will help English speakers learn Spanish, while practicing their own English skills.

The series is limited to five English speakers and five Spanish speakers. Advance registration is required, with preference given to those able to attend all six sessions.
