ORANGE COUNTY INVITES PUBLIC TO PARTICIPATE IN COMMUNITY READ

ORANGE COUNTY, NC (March 4, 2014)—The Orange County Human Relations Commission is hosting its annual Community READ event.

The gathering will take place at the Orange County Main Library on Monday, March 31, from 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. The Library is located at 137 W. Margaret Lane in Hillsborough.

The community is encouraged to read My Black Family, My White Privilege by Michael Wenger. This narrative is written from Wenger's personal journey through what he coins as the nation's racial minefield. Mr. Wenger will be in attendance to facilitate the conversation. It is not necessary to read the book to join in the conversation

The Human Relations Commission is making this a community-wide event by requesting local book clubs to let the Commission know if their group has selected Wenger's book as a part of their reading list.

This event is co-sponsored by the Kenan-Flagler Center for Sustainable Enterprise.

For more information about the Community READ, please contact the Orange County Human Relations Commission at 919.245.2488.
