FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ORANGE COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY NOW ACCEPTING ONLINE FINE PAYMENTS

ORANGE COUNTY, NC (March 4, 2014)—The Orange County Public Library (OCPL) is now accepting online credit card payments. OCPL Main Library and Cybrary customers can pay library fines through their online account.

This new service provides customers a convenient option for paying library fines, while addressing increasing public demand for this service. In addition to online payments, customers can use their online accounts to renew library materials, place requests, sign up for notices, and update their contact information with the library.

At this time, only credit card payments will be accepted online. If visiting the library in person to pay a fine, cash and check payments are accepted. Online payment is not currently available through OCPL Carrboro Branch online accounts.

For more information about this and other library services, please visit www.orangecountync.gov/library.
