

You're Invited!

Orange County Unified Development Ordinance (UDO) Public Input Sessions

Who: The Orange County Planning and Inspections Department is inviting the public to attend upcoming Public Input Sessions.

What: Orange County is in the process of preparing a Unified Development Ordinance (UDO). A UDO compiles property development regulations into one cross-referenced document. Examples of existing ordinances to be included in the UDO are: zoning, subdivision, flood damage, and erosion control.

When

& Where: June 14, 2010 Orange County West Campus Office Bld., Lower Level
6:30-8:30 PM 131 W. Margaret Ln., Hillsborough

June 16, 2010 Southern Human Services Center
6:30-8:30 PM 2501 Homestead Rd., Chapel Hill

Why: The purpose of the meetings is to review the document's layout and certain sections of the first draft of the UDO including:

- Parking
- Landscaping and Tree Protection
- Outdoor Lighting
- Signage
- Stream Buffers
- Conditional Use

These meetings will be identical in format and content so attend whichever session is most convenient for you. Light refreshments will be provided.

For questions or additional information please contact the Orange County Planning and Inspections Department at (919) 245-2575. Information is also available on the Department's website at: www.co.orange.nc.us/planning