

What Now?

2010 Census to yield vital numbers for years to come

The census doesn't end in 2010. Although the collection work will be over, the task of sorting through the numbers and publishing them in usable formats will continue for years to come. Here is a timeline for the release of selected data. For more information, contact the Charlotte Region Information Services at (704) 936-5330.

December 31, 2010

State population counts delivered to President Obama for reapportionment.

February – March 2011

State population counts for race, Hispanic ethnicity, and housing unit counts available for redistricting by states.

May 2011

Demographic Profile: Selected population and housing characteristics

June – August 2011

Summary File 1: Population counts for 63 race categories, Hispanic ethnicity, and American Indian/Alaska Native tribes

December 2011 – April 2012

Summary File 2: Population and housing characteristics providing details about race, ethnicity and American Indian/Alaska Native tribes

December 2010

American Indian/Alaska Native Summary File: Population and housing details

January 2013

Congressional District summary File: Details for newly redistricted U.S. House of Representatives districts for 113th Congress

June 2013

State Legislative District Summary File: Details for newly drawn state legislative districts

July – August 2013

Refine Core-Based Statistical Areas Update: Counts and characteristics as defined by the Office of Management and Budget