

Justice Advisory Council Meeting

Friday, August 14, 2020

10:00 AM – 11:30 AM

---

AGENDA

- |      |                                                      |                                                                                                                                                   |
|------|------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| I.   | Welcome and Introductions (5 min)                    | Sally Greene, Commissioner and JAC Chair                                                                                                          |
| II.  | An Introduction to Healing Justice (30 min)          | Jennifer Thompson, Founder of Healing Justice and Author of Picking Cotton                                                                 |
| III. | Chapel Hill's Criminal Justice Debt Program (20 min) | Karen Stegman, Chapel Hill Council memberAllen Buansi, Chapel Hill Council memberMegan Johnson, Chapel Hill Police Crisis Unit Supervisor |
| IV.  | Stakeholder Updates (30 min)                         | JAC Members                                                                                                                                       |

Next JAC Meeting Date:
November 6, 2020