

Criminal Justice Debt Program

What is the CJDP?

Orange County Residents are eligible for funding to pay court fees/costs in NC, as well as NC DMV hearing and reinstatement fees required to restore a license.

Funding is available through contributions from the Towns of Chapel Hill and Carrboro.

Eligibility

- Applicants must live within Orange County, North Carolina
 - Costs and fees can be from other counties in North Carolina
- Must meet court indigency standards (low-income)
- Cannot be currently incarcerated
- Must have already pursued other avenues for debt relief (e.g., driver's license restoration program)
- Must demonstrate that assistance will have an immediate impact on his or her stability or successful reentry into the community
- Fines, Restitution, and Vehicle Registration Costs are not eligible
