FREE Technology Classes!

Orange Literacy is partnering with Senior Planet from AARP to help people over 50 learn new online skills. When you sign up for the Digital Skills Ready@50+ program, you'll gain the essential skills you need to navigate an increasingly digital world.

Whether you're looking for a job, exploring entrepreneurship, or hoping to stay connected with family and friends, Digital Skills Ready@50+ classes and workshops offer trainings on a wide range of technologies, from video conferencing to online job search tools to office productivity software.

Classes are hosted at Passmore Center:
103 Meadowlands Dr, Hillsborough, NC 27278

Classes are on Wednesdays at 2:30 p.m.
Sign up for as many as you like.
