In celebration of April as Fair Housing Month, the Orange County Human Relations Commission encourages residents to read the 2019 Community Read book Evicted: Poverty and Profit in the American City.

Matthew Desmond's bestseller is a page-turner on extreme poverty and economic exploitation in America.

Pulitzer Prize
Winner & New
York Times
Bestseller

Please join us on April 3 or April 24 for a heartfelt discussion on the various themes and its application in our community. Enjoy!

Light refreshments will be provided.
