Department of Environment,
Agriculture, Parks & Recreation

Help your child start off strong in school with Ready for K Summer Camp!

Children with early education experience are more likely to do better in school. Prepare your child for the first day of kindergarten! This is a free, all-day program for children who will be attending New Hope Elementary in the Fall of 2019. Transportation, breakfast, lunch and afternoon snack will be provided. Applications will be accepted starting in February, and enrollment will be based on academic need. Notification of acceptance will be mailed.

Over the summer, your child will...

- improve their social, emotional, and academic skills needed to succeed in kindergarten.
- develop a love of learning in a classroom setting.
- practice the routines and procedures of a typical school day in kindergarten.

Dates: July 15 - August 8, 2019 (Monday - Thursday)

Hours: 7:45 am - 4:00 pm

Location: New Hope Elementary School, 1900 New Hope Church Road, Chapel Hill, NC 27514

Daily Schedule: Morning: School Readiness Activities provided by Orange County Schools. Afternoon: Enrichment Activities provided by the Department of Environment, Agriculture, Parks & Recreation

The Ready for K Summer Camp is in place to “set students up to love learning. That’s ultimately our goal—to develop lifelong learners who feel successful and can be successful.”

— Ambra Wilson, Principal & Site Coordinator
New Hope Elementary School

What do parents say they like most about K Ready Summer Camp?
